

Untitled Page

Help Documentation

Current Connections

SmarterMail will monitor the server and see who is connecting via the different protocols—SMTP, IMAP, and POP. System administrators can then blacklist a certain user if they believe a user is making too many connections.

To view the current connections, click the manage icon and expand Current Connections in the navigation pane. Then click the appropriate connection type.