

North American Countries

Help Documentation

North American Countries

This report shows the traffic from the countries of North America, with the highest activity country being listed first. The countries visitors are coming from are identified by IP address.

Note: This report can be added as a report item to a custom report. For more information on report items, refer to Understanding Report Items .

For a definition of the terms listed on this page, please refer to the Glossary .